

Thirdrock expands client advisory team

Aug 17, 2017

Thirdrock Group has added five experienced wealth professionals, including two senior private bankers, to its client advisory team in the past two months.

The new hires bring its investment team size to nearly 20, reflecting the firm's commitment to growth and also its belief in the potential of the IAM industry.

This month, Thirdrock hired wealth management veteran Arthur Fong as senior client adviser. With nearly three decades of banking experience, mostly in private banking, he was most recently managing director, Greater China market as well as the deputy Singapore location head for the Greater China business at Bank of Singapore.

Earlier this year, Thirdrock also appointed senior private banking professional Martin Lim as senior client advisor. He joined from Standard Chartered Private Bank, where he was executive director and head of the Malaysia team.

Other recent additions to the team include Richard Lewis, Rainer Teo and Nikhil Niyogi – all of whom are career private bankers with international experience in private banking and wealth management in leading financial institutions.
